The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

	First Reading	Second Reading	Gospel
This Weekend's Readings	Am 7:12-15	Eph 1:3-14 or 1:3-10	Mk 6:7-13

“Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.”

Mark 6:10-11

This Sunday, the readings focus on God’s call and mission. We see how God chooses ordinary people to carry out His work.

- God’s Call: Amos was a shepherd when God called him to prophesy to Israel. This shows that God can call anyone for His mission.
- Spiritual Blessings: In Ephesians, we learn that we are blessed with spiritual riches in Christ. This means we are chosen, redeemed, and sealed with the Holy Spirit.
- Mission of the Twelve: Jesus sends out the Twelve apostles to preach, heal, and expel demons. They are to rely on God and the hospitality of others.
- Repentance and Faith: The apostles were sent to preach repentance. This teaches us the importance of turning away from sin and believing in God’s message.
- Relying on God: Jesus instructs the apostles to take minimal supplies. This shows that we should trust God to provide for our needs.

The themes for this Sunday remind us that God calls us all to serve Him. We are blessed in Christ and should trust in God as we carry out our mission.

A Summer Prayer for Families

May we make our homes places of relaxation, joy, love, peace and safety.

May we be generous and considerate, not thinking only about ourselves, but helping others enjoy the blessings of the summertime.

Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts during these months of summer and vacation days.

Grant us refreshment of mind and body.

May we constantly strive to make a meaningful difference in the lives of our loved ones and in the world around us as we enjoy the warm days of summertime.

Amen.

Saint Bonaventure was a Bishop, and a Doctor of the Church. He was born in Tuscany, in 1221. He received his name when his mother was pleading in prayer to St. Francis of Assisi, for John's recovery from a dangerous illness. Foreseeing the future greatness of little John in a vision, she cried out, "O Buona Ventura", meaning, "O good Fortune". From that day on, John was called Bonaventure.

St. Bonaventure did suffer from a life threatening illness effecting the bowels as a young child, and that prayer to St. Francis of Assisi saved his life. At age twenty two, St. Bonaventure entered the Franciscan Order. Having made his vows, he was sent of Paris to complete his studies. While in Paris, he became a close friend of St. Thomas Aquinas. He received his Doctor of Theology, together with his friend, Thomas Aquinas. At the age of thirty five, he was chosen General of his Order and restored a perfect calm, where peace had been disturbed by internal dissensions.

He did much for his Order and was the composer of the "Life of St. Francis". He also assisted at the translation of the relics of St. Anthony of Padua. He was asked to be Archbishop of York, by Pope Clement IV. In his humility he begged not to be forced to accept that position. Gregory X assigned him to even a greater position, the Cardinal and Bishop of Albano, one of the six Sees of Rome.

In Bonaventures many studies, deep understanding of the faith, and his ability to Shepherd with compassion and Wisdom, he was ranked as one of the greatest Doctors of the Church by the Franciscan Pope Sixtus V. He died of natural causes while he was assisting at the Second Council of Lyons, on July 15th, 1274. He is the Patron Saint of bowel disorders – as it is believed that was the cause of his childhood illness that nearly took his life.

Practical Take Away

St. Bonaventure's life teaches us many things. First of all we can count on Church Triumphant – the Saints, to intercede for us when needed. If his mother hadn't called out to St. Francis to save her son's life, he would most likely have passed as an infant. He in return, dedicated his life to serving others through the Church. His virtues of humility and compassion were his guiding force as he shepherded his flock. His gift of Wisdom won for him the title "Doctor" of the Church. We can always reach out to the body of Saints to intercede for us, and the life of St. Bonaventure shows us that. It is only by focusing outside of ourselves and serving others that we too, can be of great value to those around us. St. Bonaventure shows us this, and is remember over 8 centuries later.

Faith Formation

Are you someone or do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized? Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting.
