The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel
This Weekend's Readings Jer 23:1-6 Eph 2:13-18 Mk 6:30-34

His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:34

This Sunday, the readings highlight God's care for His people and the unity brought by Christ. They show how God promises to guide and protect us, breaking down barriers and giving us peace.

- God's Promise to Lead: Jeremiah speaks of God condemning bad leaders and promising to lead His people with wisdom and justice. This shows God's commitment to guide and protect His flock.
- Unity in Christ: Ephesians highlights how Christ's sacrifice has made us one. He has broken down barriers, giving us all access to the Father and creating peace among us.
- Compassion of Jesus: In Mark's Gospel, Jesus sees the crowd's need and teaches them with compassion. He recognizes their need for guidance, like sheep without a shepherd.
- Just Leadership: Jeremiah's message emphasizes the need for just and wise leaders. God promises to personally ensure the safety and growth of His people.
- Peace Through Sacrifice: Ephesians explains how Christ's sacrifice brings peace. His actions reconcile us with God and each other.
- Need for Guidance: Mark's Gospel shows people seeking Jesus' guidance. Jesus responds with compassion, understanding their need for a shepherd.

This Sunday reminds us of God's promise to lead and protect us. It also shows how Christ's sacrifice unites us and brings peace.

On July 26, we celebrate the Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This is the "feast of grandparents." It reminds grandparents of their responsibility to establish a tone for generations to come: They must make the traditions live and offer them as a promise to little children. But the feast has a message for the younger generation as well. It reminds the young that older people's greater perspective, depth of experience, and appreciation of life's profound rhythms are all part of a wisdom not to be taken lightly or ignored.

•This week is the final week to sign up for or donate to our Annual Altar Servers School Supplies Drive!

Mahalo to everyone who so generously donated to help the students in our community!

Distribution will be on July 28, 2024 after the 9:30am Mass

Faith Formation

Are you someone or do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized? Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist? We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting.
